Background/Introduction: United Tribes Technical College (UTTC) is issuing this RFP for the provision of Powwow Sound at the Lone Star Veterans Arena for the 2023 UTTC International Powwow.

Project Goals and Scope of Services:

1. Operate all aspects of a public address sound system for approximately 20,000 powwow and audience participants in and around Lone Star Veterans Arena;
2. Provide all public address sound system equipment necessary for the purpose of providing quality sound for powwow singing, drumming, and dancing;
3. Provide for and supervise portable microphone handlers (mic runners) during the event;
4. Make state-of-the-art, digital audio recordings of the powwow in its entirety on the contractors equipment; and
5. Supply UTTC with the digitized recordings at or before the end of the event. All recordings will be the sole property of United Tribes Technical College.

Anticipated Selection Schedule:

- Request for RFP: January 13, 2023
- Deadline for Bids: February 8, 2023 5:00 PM (Central time)
- Selection of Bidder: March 16, 2023
- Contract Award: March 17, 2023

Time and Place of Submission of Proposals

The electronic RFP will be posted on our website (www.unitedtribespowwow.com), or the United Tribes Technical College International Powwow Facebook Page, and can be downloaded directly as of 5 p.m. on January 13, 2023. A paper RFP is available by request from the contact person listed above.

Respondents to this RFP must submit one original and five copies of their proposal. Responses must be received no later than 5 PM on February 8, 2023. Responses should be clearly marked "2023 RFP-Powwow Sound" and mailed or delivered to the contact person listed above.

Elements of the Proposal

A submission must, at a minimum, include the following elements:

- A general overview of the firm, and the names and credentials of the Powwow Sound team who will be providing services.
- A one-page narrative that details a description of work proposed and any other relevant information that would be beneficial in evaluating the proposal.
- Outlining the firm's strengths and distinguishing skills or capabilities as they might relate to fulfillment of the Powwow Sound contract is appropriate.
- Proposers are encouraged to provide a list of references and/or past work where public address services have been provided as other events such as other powwows or American Indian cultural events.

Evaluation Criteria

The successful respondent will:

- Have been operating as a provider of public address services related to powwow or American Indian cultural events for a minimum of 24 months;
- Possess all public address equipment to fulfill the Powwow Sound scope of work such as: amplifiers, mixers, microphones, and speakers;
- Provide all team members to fulfill the contract as detailed in the Project Goal and Scope of Services and the Timeline sections of this RFP;
- Offer a competitive cost for services; and
- Will provide a history of services for expertise in working with similar events and customers.

UTTC reserves the right to contact any Proposer for clarification of information submitted, to contact current and past customers of the Proposer and to use other sources of obtaining information regarding the Proposer that may be deemed appropriate and that would assist in the evaluation.

Disclaimer

UTTC reserves the right to reject any and all proposals. Owner will not be held liable for any mailing, shipping or other costs assumed by proposer. The proposer is responsible to ensure delivery of proposal by time and date identified.

UTTC reserves the right to hold legitimate bids for seven (7) days, to reject bids and to waive any irregularities when in the best interest of UTTC and UTTC shall incur no legal liability for the payment of any monies until the contract is awarded and approved by the proper authorities.
